Tigers in Pro Soccer

RECORDS

Over the last 25 years, the Tigers have been well-represented in the ranks of professional soccer, both indoors and outdoors.

There have been 11 former Tiger soccer players who have worn the uniform of the Baltimore Blast of the Major Soccer League (MSL) while another ten Tiger soccer alumni have played for either the Delaware Wizards or the Baltimore Bays of the United States Interregional Soccer League.

Machel Millwood, '03 was a key member of the Blast team that won its third MISL title in four years. In May, he was the Championship Series Most Valuable Player as the Blast edged St. Louis for the title.

Millwood scored the championship-winning goal and finished the season with 11 goals and eight assists. Steve Fell, '05 was also a member of the Blast's championship team.

Barry Stitz, '91 may have the highest profile of all the Tiger pros. He was a key performer for the Baltimore Spirit and the Blast from 1991 to 2000. During his career, he was an NPSL all-star twice and scored 131 goals.

Former Tiger Lance Johnson, '92 has been one of the Blast's top players the last few years. He was named to the NPSL all-star team the last year, the fourth time he has been honored. He has also been a team captain twice.
